Fimian Continues to Outpace Connolly in Fundraising

Fimian Maintains Cash Advantage in Final Two Weeks

Fairfax, VA – Keith Fimian, Republican candidate for Congress (VA-11) released the following statement today having outraised Congressman Connolly $146,000 to $55,000 in the first two weeks of October.

“I am once again humbled to announce that thanks to so many great supporters, we have outraised Congressman Connolly,” Fimian said. “For the cycle, I have outraised Congressman Connolly $2,334,440 to $2,215,275. This is a testament to our grassroots support, positive message, and the recognition among Northern Virginians that Congressman Connolly is part of the problem in Washington.”

Going into the final two weeks of the campaign, Fimian maintains a $1,071,000 to $874,000 cash on-hand advantage.

“The momentum is on our side in this race,” Fimian said. “Connolly’s dwindling financial support and desperate attacks attempting to deflect voters’ attention from his failed economic policies and out-of-control spending are a clear indication the race is trending away from him.”
